P.C.

. The learned counsel for the petitioner has failed to point out any undertaking given by the Respondent to the court. He has pointed out the orders of the Supreme Court whereby the direction was given to the Respondent to vacate the premises by 31st July, 2006, failing which it was directed that the petitioner would be at liberty to get the premises vacated with the help of the police. The petitioner has already filed the Execution petition. The petitioner has to pursue the same. Hence, there is no contempt. Contempt petition is accordingly disposed of.
